

The Art of Connection

Exhibition of Student Art

State Charter Schools Foundation of Georgia

State charter school students - show your creativity for the State Charter Schools Foundation of Georgia's (SCSF) annual art exhibition! The SCSF believes that encouraging children and teens to create art helps them form connections with the world around them. Artistic engagement helps children develop cognitive and emotional skills, giving them an outlet to express themselves and explore their own ideas.

Submission

The SCSF will accept 2-D visual art entries electronically through their website at scsfqa.org from February 6 through February 24, 2022.

- All entries must be approved by a parent or guardian who consents to displaying the art on the SCSF website's digital art gallery with the student's first name, grade, and school name. (Students who are 18 or older may provide their own consent.)
- Entries will be submitted via Internet upload using a high-quality image of the work of art or an original digital file. This file will be used to determine winners in each grade group and will be posted to the digital art gallery. Photos from cell phones are acceptable, but entrants should remember that judges will be using these photos to make decisions. (Please make sure the picture is clear!)
- Winning entries will become the property of the SCSF, and they will be displayed at the SCSF office. The original entries will be mailed or dropped off to the SCSF at the conclusion of judging.

Rules

- Any 2-D work of art may be submitted. This includes paintings, drawings, digital photos, collages, graphic designs, or a combination of media. Use your imagination!
- All entries must be the work of one state charter school student without the assistance of any other student or adult. Entries should be reflective of the entrant's age and ability.
- Under no circumstances may a student enter someone else's work as their own or include someone else's work as a part of their entry.
- Entries must be at least as large as a standard piece of letter size paper (8 ½" x 11") and no larger than 24" x 36".
- Copyrighted images are not allowable unless they are included as a small part of the entry and not the focus of the entry. (For example, the logo of a product may be included in a photo in the background, but it cannot be the focus of the photo.) Excerpts from newspapers, magazines, or other media are acceptable if they are part of the design and not the focus of the entry.
- If an entry includes the likeness of another person, please request permission by that person or their parent/guardian before entering it in this contest.
